

Australian Antiquarian Horological Society

Membership Application

An applicant must be nominated and seconded by two current financial members of the Society. Arrangements can be made for introductions to Society members.

A completed application will be referred to the Committee of the Society for approval. Following notification of acceptance, payments of the Joining Fee and Annual Subscription Fee (see aahs.org.au/membership) will be required before an applicant's membership is rendered effective. Applicants must agree to abide by the rules of the Society.

Prospective members are always welcome to attend our monthly meetings.
